A theory prevails that Graves, miscaken for someone clee, might have been shot by beetleggers operating in the vicinity of his home.

The police discounted a new theory
based upon alleged threats against a sighbor of Graves, said to have been made by relatives of a girl with whom he had quarroled. It was thought that reaves might have been mistaken for this helpshor and shot by the relatives. Polies and they had thoroughly investigatted has story and that it offered no soluion of the murder mystery.

MARKET WAS UNSETTLED

New York, March 21.—Recent conflicting tendencies in the stock market prevalled again today. Heaviness of rails, steels and equipments more than neutralised the manoeuvers of built pools in the motors, reliard issues and specialties.

Eliminating technical conditions,
which pointed to an increasingly tenuous
short position, developments and incidents

The viciory over Kronstadt, it is beserved here, will not divert Nikolai Lenine. The Russian boishevik premier from the practical policy on which he has ately embarked. Under pressure of the nicessant unrest he continues to nursue his program founded on reconciliation with the right wing of the socialists, and hope is entertained that evolution lowers the reconstruction of Russia has already commenced.

Lenine's new orientation in leading his supporters considerably away from the left wing led by Trotaky, and there are many indications of the coming of an open conflict. -The victory over Kronstadt, it is be-

pen conflict.

The Buffalo fighter's attack puzzled Jackson, who was unable to avoid Kansas' terrific left swings.

Jackson outpointed Kansas in the first and second rounds. The the third, Kansas pounded his opponent's body with hard lefts. In the next two rounds Jackson kept him away with a long left.

From the sixth to the eleventh, Kansas' a rushed his opponent about punishing him about the head and body. Jackson was cautioned in the seventh for pushing his thumb into Kansas' face. In the last round Jackson fought harder, standing toe to toe with his opponent. Kansas' best attack was at close quarters.

TWIN WRESTLERS PUT ONE

Eddie Goebel, Tony Marhefka and Frankie Bruggy took part in a recent exhibition game between the Phillies and Washington. Goebel played centerfield for the Senators, batted sixth and was up three times without making a hit. He had two putouts. Marhefka played second base for the same outfit, which had only Shanks and Brower of the regulars, outside the battery. POINT FOR THIS YEAR

Cambridge, Mass., Mar. 21—Coach Fisher told the 100 Harvard men who attended a football meeting tonight that it would be necessary for the squad to make a better start than ever because of hard games on the early part of next fall's schedule. He said the weak point this year-was the line
and that special efforts must be made for improvement there.

About sixty men signified their intention of participating in the spring practice, which will occupy three weeks, Among them are several veterans.

Do you pay your body to keep you vigorous?

energy. If you replace the energy expended, you keep strong and vigorous. But, if you fall to replace the lost energy, the vital power of the body becomes exhausted—the blood gets impoverished—the nerves get sbaky-you get irritable, depressed and feel all run-down. To keep strong and vigorous, the system must be supplied with the materials which enable the body to create a continuous supply of vital energy. In other words, the body must be paid to keep you vigorous.

If you tire quickly—If your nerves are shaky—
If your blood is poor—If you are run-down or debilitated—your body is asking for payment.

That means your system is calling for what it lacks when you are weak, anaethose materials which it needs to enable mic, nervous or run-down, so surely will it to create vital energy and nerve force.

And so surely as you restore to the body steady nerves, vitality and endurance.

Spirit and Merale High.

A sample of the spirit and morale of this team was shown in the closing weeks of the season last fall as well as in the world's series, and it's the same team now that finished the season of 1920.

When Ray Chapman was killed late in the season by the accident in New York the Indians were in front and soing fast. That accident to one of their members was like it had happened in a family, and for a week or more there was extreme grief. The team fell out of first place but do the left flending, Graney working it recovered and went into the fight with against right hunders. 1.33年 東京 it recovered and went into the fight with against right handers # Elmer Smith and
